Copyright acknowledgement (required)

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified by law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used "for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a User makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that User may be liable for copyright infringement.

I understand that I may use the photocopies for research purposes only.
