Journey Through Time with 'Historic Trees of Lancaster County'

Explore the Living Witnesses of Lancaster's History with the Friends of the Tanger Arboretum

LANCASTER, Pa. – The Friends of the Tanger Arboretum is delighted to invite the community to “Historic Trees of Lancaster County: Part 2,” a fascinating presentation for those who love nature and history, by Len Eiserer.

This event will take place on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2023, at 11 a.m. at LancasterHistory, and offers an insightful opportunity to explore the historical connections between local trees and significant moments in history. From trees that witnessed the 1787 Constitutional Convention to those that played a role in the 1876 Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia, and even trees connected to Lancaster's vibrant 18th and 19th-century silk industries, this event promises a fascinating glimpse into the rich history of our region.

Len Eiserer earned his Bachelor's degree from the University of Maine and a doctorate in Psychology from Bryn Mawr College. With 38 years of teaching experience, he currently teaches at Harrisburg Area Community College (HACC). Eiserer also maintains the website, “Tree Treasures of Lancaster County” and serves on the board of the Friends of the Tanger
