Storytime

Every Wednesday in July 10am at LancasterHistory

Gather 'round with LancasterHistory every Wednesday in July at 10am for Storytime! Storytime at LancasterHistory takes place among historic buildings, giving children an immersive history experience. A passionate museum educator will read aloud from a book centered on a historical theme, and then lead a craft or activity inspired by the theme. This program broadens kids' historical knowledge, and establishes museum literacy and critical thinking skills.

The selections for July are:

- July 6: Gingerbread for Liberty by Mara Rockliff
- July 13: Eliza: The Story of Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton by Margaret McNamara
- July 20: Hidden Figures: The True Story of Four Black Women and the Space Race by Margot Lee Shetterly
- July 27: Henry's Freedom Box: A True Story from the Underground Railroad by Ellen Levine

The program is free, and registration is required to ensure we have craft supplies for everyone. Suggested for ages 12 and under. Register for all four Storytime programs or individual programs online or over the phone by calling (717) 392-4633.

Storytime will take place outdoors unless it rains, in which case it will be moved indoors. All attendees should abide by LancasterHistory's Heath & Safety Protocols for Visitors. We kindly ask that at least one (1) adult 18 years or older attend for every two children.

Event takes place at LancasterHistory, 230 N. President Avenue, Lancaster
