YOUR CONNECTION TO LANCASTER COUNTY'S HISTORY

LancasterHistory engages and educates the public about the people, places, and events that shaped Lancaster County within the context of the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States of America. We collect, preserve, exhibit, and make accessible materials chronicling Lancaster County's complex and compelling past.

MEMBERS HAVE EXCEPTIONAL ACCESS TO:

THE LANCASTER CAMPUS OF HISTORY

230 NORTH PRESIDENT AVENUE
LANCASTER, PA 17603
717.392.4633
OPEN MONDAY - SATURDAY
9:30AM - 5PM

Visit the eleven-acre Campus of History and enjoy the grounds and gardens of President James Buchanan's Wheatland, the Louise Arnold Tanger Arboretum, and the award-winning, LEED-certified, and environmentally-sustainable headquarters of LancasterHistory.

On the Lancaster Campus of History, you will find:

PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN'S WHEATLAND

Learn about the life and legacy of James Buchanan, the 15th president of the United States, and the family who called Wheatland home. Tours are available Monday - Saturday, on the hour, from 10 AM - 3 PM. For tickets and more visitor information, please visit www.lancasterhistory.org/visit. Visit Wheatland from mid-November - December to enjoy a holiday favorite, Yuletide at Wheatland.

MUSEUM EXHIBITIONS

Explore three centuries of history through a series of changing exhibitions. Discover the pivotal '60s decades—the 1660s, 1760s, 1860s, and 1960s—through captivating stories and artifacts in our latest exhibition, Lancaster In The 60s. Visit frequently to explore regularly changing exhibitions—you'll always find something new to discover.

THE DECORATIVE ARTS & HERITAGE CENTER COLLECTION

Since 1886, LancasterHistory has been collecting objects for research and exhibition. Today there are thousands of items that pertain to the history of Lancaster County housed within the Richard C. von Hess Decorative Arts Center, including the collections of the Heritage Center of Lancaster.

RESEARCH CENTER

Let us help you explore your family's history and your community's past. From maps and microfilm to diaries and Civil War muster rolls, LancasterHistory's Research Center has many historic resources, contemporary services, and an expert staff that can help visitors and members with their scholarly or ancestral research.

EDUCATION & PUBLIC PROGRAMS

Enjoy a wide range of learning opportunities, including—but not limited to—public history programs, lectures, living histories, classes, student tours, children's programs, and more. LancasterHistory offers internship, fellowship, and volunteer opportunities.

MUSEUM STORE

Take a piece of history home with you by shopping local in the Museum Store. The Museum Store is filled with unique local folk art, gift items, souvenirs, and books.

THE TANGER ARBORETUM

Revel in the changing of the seasons across the grounds of LancasterHistory in the Louise Arnold Tanger Arboretum, home to a large variety of mature species of trees from around the globe, pollinator gardens, and an American Conifer Society Reference Garden.
