

LancasterHistory

For Immediate Release

Contact: Emily Miller
Director of Marketing & Communications
717-392-4633 ext. 133
emily.miller@lancasterhistory.org

LancasterHistory Unveils Eclectic Lineup for 2023 "Music on the Lawn" Summer Series

Local Bands to Enliven Historic Venue with Diverse Musical Genres

LANCASTER, Pa. – LancasterHistory is pleased to announce the lineup for its 2023 Music on the Lawn series, inviting the community to enjoy a variety of musical genres performed by local bands on the beautiful grounds of a historic venue.

The series kicks off on Saturday, July 29, from 5-7 p.m. with folk, roots, and blues music from the Big Sky Quartet. On Saturday, August 19, from 5-7 p.m., Sonora Los Fantasticos trio will spice up the evening with salsa, Latin jazz, and cumbia music. Finally, the All Weather Band will conclude the series on September 9, delivering classic rock hits that promise to have the crowd humming along.

"We are thrilled to bring our community together for these enriching and relaxing outdoor events," Annie Weeks, Development & Events Manager at LancasterHistory, said. "The rich blend of musical styles presented this year represent the diverse talents within our musical community. Concerts are a wonderful way to soak in the warm summer nights. We're also very grateful to EHD, GSM Roofing, and Mosaic by Willow Valley Communities for supporting this year's series."

Admission to these events is free for LancasterHistory Members and children age 17 and under, while adult Non-Members can purchase tickets for $10. Tickets are available online, via phone at (717) 392-4633, or at the door.

Attendees are encouraged to bring their own blankets, foldable chairs, and picnics. Well-behaved, leashed dogs are also welcome. To ensure all guests can enjoy the event, special accommodations can be made by notifying Annie Weeks in advance at (717) 392-4633, ext. 134, or annie.weeks@lancastrhistory.org.

In the case of inclement weather, the decision to postpone will be made at noon on the day of each event, and ticket holders will be notified. Rain dates for each event are scheduled for the following day, from 1-3 p.m.

Come celebrate the sounds of summer with LancasterHistory's Music on the Lawn!

About LancasterHistory

LancasterHistory is a community-based, not-for-profit organization established to educate the public on the history of Lancaster County and its place in the history of Pennsylvania and the United States, to advance the missions of regional historical organizations, and to promote the acquisition, preservation, and interpretation of resources representing the history of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania within the broader context of state and national history, including the life and legacy of Congressman Thaddeus Stevens, his house manager, Lydia Hamilton Smith, and America's 15th President, James Buchanan.

###