

General Photographic Policies & Image Reproduction Fees

1. Photographs and illustrations belonging to LancasterHistory.org, hereafter referred to as LHO, may not be placed under the protection of copyright by the purchaser of such images, his heirs, assigns, or agents.
2. Written permission must be received from LHO for each use of any photograph for publication or exhibition. LHO retains all rights to reproduction and publication in any form of items in its collections.
3. Permission to reproduce covers only the specific occasion and use stated on the permission form. Additional use of any kind, including reprints, further editions, etc., will require reapplication.
4. Photographic work for any and all purposes will be done by a photographer selected or authorized by LHO under its supervision at a location approved by LHO. LHO reserves the right to refuse requests for photographic work.
5. The full credit line, "Courtesy of LancasterHistory.org, Lancaster, Pennsylvania," must be printed adjacent to the printed material and must appear for each reproduction.
6. If an image is not published in its entirety, that is, if cropped in any way, the caption must include the word "detail" as well as the full credit line.
7. LHO reserves the right to make at its own expense and use for its own purposes copies of any images covered by this application.
8. LHO requests that the requestor furnish one complimentary copy of the issue of the periodical or book in which the reproduction(s) appear.
9. LHO gives no exclusive right to any publisher, author, or photographer and assumes no responsibility for duplication of subjects by others or any responsibility for claims by third parties.
10. Patrons wishing to have images saved to CD should specify resolution and the type of file (JPEG, TIFF, etc.) required. Those wishing to have images emailed should also specify resolution, but only JPEG images can be sent via email. Files can also be sent through use of a file sharing service such as DropBox.
